BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

"Requests Sanction to the revival of lighting in the "Saragur Union, pointing out the necessity therefor.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Note is just what a draft should put up. Note in C.R. & it should be made of the N branch after disposal given

15/8

The System of lighting the streets in some of the Unions of the Mysore District was discontinued in deference to the principle enunciated in paras 2 & 3 of G.P.No. 10373-81/LB 331-09-2 dated the 18th May 1910.

2) Subsequently the revival of lighting in the Kalale Union was sanctioned by GOI for reasons given in paras 25 & 26 of the note on page 6 of the Office Notes in LB 250-10 Sh1-j B April 1912.

3) The reasons put forth for the revival of lighting in Saragur seem to be stronger than those urged in the case of Kalale.

4) The President states that the annual expenditure of the Union is much less than the annual income and that the finances of the Union admit of extra recurring expenditure being incurred.

5) A L.7 dispensary is maintained in the Saragur Union. If the charges of the dispensary are to be included in the annual expenditure of the Union, it can not be said that the finances of the Union are in a satisfactory condition since the actual income and expenditure inclusive of dispensary charges for 1911 was as follows.

Rs
Income : 1249. Expenditure Rs 135
of which Rs 588 was in connection with dispensary.
